BEVERLY HILLS, Aug. 12. [To the Editor of The Times:] Well, the whole thing Saturday over the radio certainly was a sur-prise to me, I didn't think Hoover would accept, but he did. He says every man has the right to ask the following question, "Is the United States a better place for the average man to live in because the Republican party has conducted the government eight years?"
If we are privileged to ask the question, I will be the first to bite, is it? In the That took all the joy out of

SMITH TO MEET FARM LEADERS

on Hoover Address

ALBANY (N. Y.) Aug. 12. (P)—
Before putting the finishing touches on his acceptance speech, Gov. Smith will confer here tomorrow with a group of farm leaders from the West and South, some, if not all, of whom have expressed disastisfaction with the stand of the Republicans on agriculture.

The exact make-up of the delegation that will come to Albany for a round-table discussion on the farm question with the Democratic nomines has not been disclosed, but it is expected to include at least half a dozen of the men who have half a large part in the fight in Washington over relief legislation.

FIRST OF SERIES

PHOENIX, Aug. 12. (Exclusive)—
Nominations for State and county offices in Arizona closed last night.
An attempt was made to list the Communist Workers' party on the primary ticket but Organizer William O'Brien, though backed by 500 electors, had a shortage of names. Half of his strength was in Tucson.

The Republican State committee failed to fill its ticket for a number of offices but will name candidates through the party council, held after the primary.

Koehoe, a Maysville (Ky.) banker, and former Democratic member of Congress, who is active in the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association; B. W. Kligore, president of the American Cotton Growers' Exchange, and Chester C. Davis, former Commissioner of Agriculture in Montana. Plans have been made for Gov. Smith to confer also with several Minnesota farm leaders, in addition to Murphy, but whether they will be on hand tomorrow is not known here.

ATTENDS MASS

The conference here tomorrow is in line with the determination of Gov. Smith's managers to make an active drive for the electoral votes in agricultural States. While the membres has not determined on his stumping itinerary, he is expected to deliver a series of important speeches in the corn and wheat belt, and possibly one or two in the South.

The expectation is that Peek will bring with him at least two of the delegates to the Republican convention in Kansas City who waged a losing fight for a farm plank in line with the principle of the McNary-Haugen bill, which president Coolidge vetced.

Earl C. Smith of Illinois and Frank W. Murphy of Minnecots, both of whom served on the platform committee at Kansas City, are counted on by Smith advisers to be here.

SOUTHLAND RECORD YET UNMARRED

Los Angeles County Will Exhibit at State Fair for Seventy-fourth Year

Seventy-fourth Year

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 12. (Exclusive)—The California State Pair presents one of the best opportunities available in California for showing the industries, agriculture and resources of Los Angeles County, says Charles P. Bayer, exhibition manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, who announced recently that the southern county will again be an exhibitor at the 1928 State display held here September 1 to 8.

"The State Fair gives a great opportunity to reach a large number of people in a short space of time." Payer asserted. "Experience with previous exhibitions has proven to us that the fair brings Los Angeles county lasting benefits and has a permanent effect on people who view our annual exhibit.

"Increased facilities offered this year and the increased interest which is being manifest throughout the State pressage a heavy attendance at the fair and we feel more than justified in making an exhibit this year."

Los Angeles county holds an unbroken record of seventy-four years for State Fair exhibits, having started in when the first fair was held in 1854.

PAVING THE WAY The 10,000 copies of the model municipal traffic ordinance are going out next week to the mayors of all municipalities having a population of 16,000 or more, the chiefs of police of all municipalities of 25,000 or more, city managers, secretaries of chambers of commerce, motor club, safety clubs and other civic organizations and private individuals. Afterward, on demand, they will be distributed in wholesale quantities.

they will be distributed in wholesale quantities.

The ordinance was drawn up by a committee on municipal traffic ordinances and regulations headed by William E Metager of Detroit and including about 100 representative members from all parts of the counity. They were named by Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who still is chairman of the permanent organination. Their tentative draft, completed last May, was sent out for comment and amendment to about 16,000 persons. The committee met again in Washington last month, made the revisions and sent the final draft to the presses, where they are now issuing.

Some of the specific articles of the municipal ordinance should be of extreme interest to the hundreds of thousands of motorists who will be immediately affected by their adoption. One of the first principles promulgated is that speed limits shall be fixed by the State and not by the municipalities.

him. Risko feels certain that he can win, of course, but he wants to be sure he has his old fighting edge before taking on the Boston sailor.

I can understand John's attitude. When you've been going to the wars too often you get fagged. There seems no pep left. The whole game drags. If Risko wins decisively over Roberti, and feels that he has his edge back, he'll take Sharkey on quick enough. John doesn't fear Jack. He beat him once, so why should he?

Risko ought to trim Roberti, though he'll find the battle a fairly tough one. I think in an earlier article I named the Italian as one of the most promising of the newer heavyweights. Harry Wills, who has been training him, says 30-berti is the strongest man he ever boxed with; stronger even than Luis Pirpo. He hits hard and is game.

Of course his lack of experience is a handicap. Still, he isn't easy to battle. He gave Phil Scott an interesting time, and Scott is a good boxer. Phil, won, but the youngster was much more impressive against him than people expected.

Risko has always been willing to fight. In his last two bouts he took on the 240-pound George Godfrey, and Johnny Squires, South African champion. He carried the fight to Godfrey, standing up under a lot of punishment, and banging away at the body. That is probably the way Johnny will go after Roberti.

Roberti may be alow, but ne has a whale of a lot of power behind his blows. If he should land one that starts from the ahoe tops it would knock the roof off a house. Risko, they tell me, was not too impressive in beating Squires. He seemed draggy and tired. If ne's that way Wednesday Roberti will have a chance. But of John fights as he has many times he'll beat the big fellow.

Associated Plans Test of District Marked by Many . Failures Near Santa Fe Springs

The Los Angeles Basin has a new wildcat project. This time it is a shot in an area adjacent to which nineteen shots have already been recorded. The new venture is an Associated Oil Company proposition and will be known as Taylor No. 1. It is to be drilled at a point three miles northwest from Downey, and a short distance north of the wildcat which is being drilled by the World Petroleum Corporation.

The Taylor No. 1 is an out-and-

New Strike in

Old Dominion

Widening Out

OLOBE (Aris.) Aug. 12. (Exclusive)—The new strike on the 2400 level of Old Dominion is believed to be of large importance. A mere strike is a vein from six to eight feet wide, sampling 6 per cent copper and with the appear-ance of permanence.

Manager I. H. Barkdoll says: "The strike is encouraging. With the installation, together with the new double-drum hoisting with the new double-drum hoisting bill the call of $12 and $18 ore which can be successfully treated by milling on the ground. Ldog distance from market, high shipping rates and unfavorable conditions, it is said, caused a cessation of crude ore shipments about a year ago, it being believed that reduction on the ground would yield greater profits. It is stated that the Ophir mine netted its former owners about $50,000. The property was called to the attention of the present operating ompany by the late J. T. Kelly, the strike is a vein from six to eight feet wide, sampling 6 per cent copper and with the appear-ance of permanence.

Industry on Sound Basis

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Aug. 12. (Exclusive)—P. G. Beckett, general manager of the Phelps-Dodge Corporation, while admitting that "it is notoriously difficult to forecast what is ahead in the copper market at any particular time," adds. "but fundamental conditions at the present time look sound and healthy."

He states that "for some time past the smelting ore from the immed in greatly reduced quantities, on account of the exhaustion of the present ore bodies and failure to discover new smelting ore." So there is activity in exploration of new areas, especially in the Warren section.

Much lead is being mined in Capper Queen ground and large 6perations continue in steam shoveling the Sacramento Hill area. Activity continues in the corporation's but little is being done at Tyrone and Tombstone.

More Than 100 rilling Projects Under Way Today With Deep Sand as Objective

When the hum of industry is resumed this morning at Santa Fe Springs there will be more than 100 new drilling projects under way with the recently discovered 6000-foot sone as their objective. Not more than a dozen or fifteen wells will have reached the drilling state, but more than 100 will be in the race, in stages all the way from stakes and locations to grading, building foundations, putting up derricks and setting boilers. It appears probable that before the end of the week fifty more wells will be added to the work sheets of the

A New Jersey judge fined an avistor who, in reprisal against truck drivers that he said so in the way of the airmen and mocked them, swooped down and ripped off the cab of a truck with his plane. After listening to a-recitial of how this avistor flew back and forth over the heads of the workmen, forcing them to lie down the ground to escape injury, the judge scored the birdman as "worse than a drunken driver."

There can hardly be any argument over this classification of one the extermination of those against whom he might hold a real or fancied grudge, or in a playful mood. The drunk motorist offers an alert pedestrian some slight chance, because a safe spot may be reached if luck and lively legs are on his side. PRESIDENTS' WIDOWS

The widow of Woodrow Wilson does not receive a "ederal pension. On December 14, 1925, Senator Claude Swanson of Virginia introduced a bill proposing to grant Mrs. Wilson a $5000 yearly pension, such as is received by Mrs. Roosevelt. The bill was referred to the pensions sommittee, but, supposedly in compliance with Mrs. Wilson's wishes, the matter was dropped and the bill was not voted upon. On May 14, 1928, however, a similar bill was becoming popular in Venezuela.

Although this formation has been known to geologists for a long time as productive of fossils of marine life, this is the first time that any form of vertebrate life has been unearthed here so far as scientists know. The fossil was uncovered by Daniel Poyer, operating a quarry which produces rock for ornamental building. At the suggestion of Prof. Loye H. Miller, head of the biology department of U.C.L.A., Mr. Poyer turned the specimen over to the university in order that it might be properly classified and studied. It will be placed in the museum of the university when established at the new Westwood site.

THE SYNTHETIC AGE
Year by year, according to the scientific pundits, we are approaching the synthetic age. This, in the opinion of learned chemists recently assembled at Chicago, will be the time, not very remote, when people will not depend upon tillers of the soil and fishers of the sea for their food, but will look to the laboratory. Synthetic food, they say, will gowth. For the record-breaking amount material needed for the race. A beginning already has been made in this, in the way of synthetic lumber and fabrics.

As for the food, we have mysterious ness Nationalist government has shown yet caviare to the general and about as both cases, according to recent cables, it acceptable to epicures as spinach is to has been promptly rebuked by the gov-acceptable to epicures as spinach is to the small boy.

Somehow one does not look forward to the synthetic life with great relish. What dishes will chemistry ever provide to compare with chicken a la Maryland, er even corned beef and cabbage? Can the chemists doom beefsteak and onlons or sound the knell of tomato soup? Shall our breakfasts consist of funnytasting tablets washed down with coffee tasting tablets washed down with coffee fiapjacks, with plenty of unsynthetic maple syrup and coffee such as mother hasn't forgotten how to make and bring on the good old home-cooked regime to understand that this property

OUR MOUNTING COSTS A good commander sends plenty of scouts ahead to prepare the way for his advancing army.

Those who have been at the head of Those who have been at the head of the various Los Angeles city governments during the past seven years have whole-heartedly and enthusiastically applied this principle in preparation for the advancing tide of population which has rolled into this community in such force that census estimates have approximately doubled since 1920.

But while the population has been doubling the cost of providing certain public improvements to bare for it has gone up more than eight times since the end of the fiscal year 1921-1922, according to a resume of engineering department expenditures for the last seven years, just made public. Figuring the cost of only new streets and improvements to old ones, storm drains, sanitary sewers, bridges and pedestrian subways, the Los Angeles taxpayers' bill for public improvements during the fiscal years 1927-1928, which ended June 30, last, was more than $24,000,000 in excess of the total for the corresponding period in 1921-1922. 1921-1922.

During the last-named twelve months the city expended $3,291,714 on the items named; in 1927-1928 the outlay was $27,537,920.

At the end of the fiscal year 1926-1927, when the expenditure stood at $22,782,-710 for the year, Los Angeles was in possession of 4448.55 miles of thoroughfares, 2468 miles of which were of the latest improved type. This was the highest total mileage of any city in the United States and exceeded even that of New York with its 7,000,000 population, compared to 1,250,000 here at the present time. At the end of the fiscal year 1926-1927, time.

It undoubtedly will occur to many heavily burdened taxpayers to wonder why Los Angeles needs more streets than New York, with less than one-fifth the population. However, it must be borne in mind that a consider bie fraction of this city's streets were originally built with State and Federal aid, while much of the cost of others was defraved. much of the cost of others was defrayed by the subdividers of outlying residential by the subdividers of outlying residential property and by property owners.

Nevertheless, as in nearly all previous years, street work in 1927-1928 took the lion's share of engineering department expenditures. The 291.19 miles of thoroughfare that were added, including improvements to existing highways, required the outlay of $17,019,688. In 1926-1927 $12,530,397 was spent for the same.

A study of these figures discloses the peculiar fact that the cost per mile of road building in this city also appears to be on the up-trend, for. whereas the 1926-1927 figure was about $58,264 per mile, last year it had climbed to $55,486. On the face of the engineer's report it appears that it cost about $64,602 more to pave 291 miles of streets in 1927-1928 than it would have cost for the same mileage in 1926-1927.

An explanation of this may lie in the mileage in 1925-1927.

An explanation of this may lie in the variety and extent of patented paving used last year; paving on which a royalty must be paid to the owner of the patent and in nearly all cases use certain specified materials. Illustrating the wide difference between the cost of paving laid—the difference in quality being not always visible to the taxpayer—the report discloses that 5.81 miles of asphalt pavement cost $282,303, while only 2.45 miles of Warrenite pavement cost within $40,000 of this amount, or $342,-326. The highs—time in the road materials list wal $10,315,508 for 234.02 miles of concrete paving, or at the rate

Preaching on "Is Jesus Up to Date?" Dr. Culbertson spoke in part as follows:

"Often I have said that my supreme authority is not the Bible, nor the church, but Jesus. Now the liquor advocates are coming out with articles about how Jesus turned water into wine at Cana, and how His enemies called Him a giuttonous man and a wine-bibber. Is Jesus out of date, and has the conscience of the world outgrown Him on this and other issues of the day?

Method of Control of New Feature Troubles

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

The radio news over the weekend discloses some salient features of broadcast information.

The Radio Commission, fearing that the extensive use of picture transmission may seriously interfere with the reception of audible programs, is taking steps for the strict re-julation of this new type of radio service to the public.

Just how the members propose to do it is another matter. There even stems to be a question of whether they have the necessary authority, but time will settle the question.

E. Sweet, president, announces. The Dutch corporation already has branches similar to those here in Detroit, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Terre Haute, Pittsburgh Indianapolis, Buffalo and Syracuse.

The idea back of the founding of the Dutch Chain Store system, Mr. Sweet declares, is the belief that ice cream is an important food as well as a delicious confection, and a desire to make it more easily accessible to the public through neighborhood stores.

Officials of the syndicate arrived in Los Angeles some weeks ago and proceeded to select and sign song-term leases on store sites at 616 South Western avenue, 8230 Santa Monica Boulevard, 2614 and 5424 Angeles Mosa Drive, 234 North Larshmont, 341 North La Brea, 3513 West Washington, 1462 North Vine street, 900 East Green street, Pasadent, and 2600 West-Main, Alhambra.

The cream is made according to a jealously guarded formula evolved through years of experiment. The service specializes in the "drive-up" or curb purchase.

All equipment is of the most modern electric type, and all ice cream is made fresh daily, no stocks being carried over.

Vine Street Theater. If you have seen it, go see it again.

"Clarence" is one of those rare plays that never grow old. The lines have lost not a whit of sparkle, and surely Clarence, himself, is one of the most delightful characters that ever walked across a stage.

If I remember correctly this is the third time that Edward Everett Horton has presented the Booth Tarkington comedy in Los Angeles. Ferhaps, of all the roles that Horton has played, he is at his best as Clarence, the man who could drive army mules without swearing.

It was a particularly brilliant andience last night, partly due as a welcoming gesture to Leatrice Joy, the new leading lady of the theater, and in part to the perennial popularity of the offering.

It seems almost ridiculous to go into the plot, but for those who do not know the play it relates the most amusing experiences of an exsoldier as a "Mr. Fix-it" in a chaotic home of the rich. He hears the troubles of the two adolescents, Bobbie and Cora, the sorrows of the step-mother, and falls in love with Miss Pinney, the governess.

Mrs. Malaprop insisted that comparisons are odorous, but it is not easy to forget the presentation given several years ago at the Majestic. Stanley Taylor and Barah Sothern, who first played it here, seemed to have a shade the best of it over Joe Depew and Dorothy Seay, the current Bobbie and Cora. But they are, nevertheless, two very talented and personable young troupers. Bobble, you remember, is in the midst of an amour with both Miss Pinney and the housemadd, and Cora is in love with a grass-widower.

"Clarence, you've been in the army." Cora asks plaintively, "do

MEXICANS REPEAT SUCCESS

If you enjoy your vaudeville you'll like the new bill that opened yester-day at the Orpheum, a bill that in-cluded, besides the Mexican Orches-to all ardent followers of the two-a-day.

Just for example we mention Jack Norworth and Dorothy Adelphi. These two are on this week's bill in a return engagement of their skit. "The Nagger," always a popular hit, it seemed to go over bigger than ever at last night's performance. It took its laughs from the initial to the final "nag."

Those who have not seen it before will no doubt gather from the title that the playlet deals with domestic difficulties. It does . . . and how! Bert Hanlon is another vaude-villian who received the approval of the audience. Bert's act consisted chiefly of wise-cracks . . but a defi little touch made even the old ones seem new. No one minded these, however, for there was plenty of brand, new 1928 humor in Bert's

Hair Growing Preparations Avidly Sought

Hair-growing preparations were in demand in the picture studios after "The Cossacks," John Gilbert's feature, now playing at the Uptown Theater, was finished. For Ernest Torrence, Paul Hurst, and other sctors in the play had their heads shaved, to enact Cossack fighters of the steppes. These men shaved their heads in battle, and all except Gilbert underwent the treatment. Gilbert underwent the treatment. Gilbert plays a swashbuckling Cossack soldler, and Torrence his father, a Cossack chief, in the new story, a lurid adventure drama of the Turklah wars with Rence Adoree as the heroine.
